In the Spotlight

Have you met Kelli Chamberlain?

You might have seen her working in our front office this summer taking registrations, answering phone calls, and providing information on the numerous programs the recreation department offers to the public.

This wasn't the first time she has worked with the department however. She started as a Teen Junior Leader volunteering at various programs with youth, teens, and adults. Kelli became a Junior Leader because she wanted the work experience and to learn the responsibilities of work. She liked the leadership skills she gained from the program and she adds, "it taught me the importance of being on time." She stayed with the Junior Leader program for three years. Kelli has used her experience as a Junior Leader to transition into the summer front office position. "Junior Leadership taught me to be punctual and presentable for the public." When asked what she likes best about her job she replied, "I like the atmosphere and the people I work with. They are great." When Kelli isn't working for the Recreation Department, she is cooking, playing Frisbee, hiking, boating, or playing tennis. With all those hobbies, we are glad she found time to give us a hand during a busy summer season!
