

Yes! I'm Recyclable!

Plastic bottles & jugs

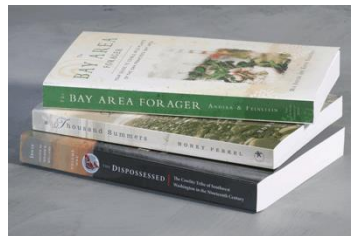

Mixed paper & junk mail

Tin & aluminum cans

Cereal boxes (no liner)

Paperback & phone books

Milk & beverage cartons

Paper egg cartons

Cardboard (flattened)

Magazines & newspaper

Other items that are recyclable include:

- Frozen food boxes.
- Plastic coffee tubs (no lid).
- Shredded paper (please place in a paper bag).
- Paperback books. For hardcover books, please remove the cover.

Empty and rinse containers. Flatten cardboard and boxes.
Throw away plastic lids and caps.

No! I'm Not Recyclable!

Items that DON'T belong in your recycling cart

Plastic bags

Styrofoam of any kind

Paper plates, cups & napkins

Motor oil & hazardous waste containers

Glassware

Prescription Vials

Coat hangers
(plastic or metal)

Plastic caps & tops

Clear plastic tubs & cups

Aerosol cans

Pyrex & ceramics

Plastic clamshells
and other packaging

Light bulbs

Glass bottles & jars

Not sure if an item is recyclable? Remember...

“When in doubt – throw it out!”

It's better to toss an item you are unsure about, than risk contamination!

If an item is reusable, please consider donating or reusing it before throwing it into the garbage